EXPERTISE

Managing Partner at Borel & Barbey, Alexandre de Weck advises individuals and companies, including banks and wealth managers, and represents them before state courts and arbitral tribunals. He specialises in international commercial disputes, mutual legal assistance in criminal matters, as well as employment law.

His expertise mainly extends to banking and financial litigation, areas in which he has significant and extensive experience.

Alexandre de Weck also regularly represents our clients in complex enforcement proceedings, such as the execution of foreign judgments and awards, bankruptcies or attachment orders.
