EXPERTISE —————

Managing Partner at Borel & Barbey, Marc Fischer advises a private, often international, clientele on their relocation to Switzerland, primarily concerning the transfer of domicile (immigration law), as well as matters related to estate planning and inheritance, notably through the establishment of trusts and foundations.

He has recognised expertise in supporting family groups both in Switzerland and abroad on estate planning issues, including asset structuring, drafting of wills, and the management of their family offices.

Marc Fischer is also a member of the boards of Swiss foundations and protector of foreign trusts, including public interest, charitable, or philanthropic trusts. Additionally, he serves on the boards of various commercial and financial companies, both Swiss and foreign.
