EXPERTISE —————

Nora Battisti advises private and institutional clients on business law matters, particularly in corporate and commercial law, as well as financing and restructuring.

She handles complex banking and finance law issues, with a specific focus on financial services regulation and supporting financial institutions, particularly during enforcement proceedings or the implementation of an L-QIF. Additionally, she provides guidance to FinTech companies.

Her expertise extends to mergers and acquisitions, where she assists start-ups, SMEs, and publicly listed companies with their private equity, venture capital, and restructuring projects. Nora Battisti also advises shareholders, entrepreneurs, and board members on their growth and expansion strategies, particularly regarding fundraising or the implementation of employee profit-sharing schemes.

She is also active in related areas such as data protection.
