EXPERTISE —————

Partner at Borel & Barbey, Céline Gautier advises and represents private and institutional clients in criminal, civil and commercial litigation, primarily in business law.

Her expertise covers a wide range of disputes, with a particular focus on complex and multi-jurisdictional economic crime cases, including fraud, money laundering, bribery, and mutual legal assistance.

She also works in the areas of commercial litigation, insolvency, banking litigation, and debt enforcement, where she assists our clients in defending their interests at both national and international levels.
