EXPERTISE

Clément Bouvier advises private and institutional clients across all areas of business law, with a particular focus on corporate law, contract law, financing and restructuring, as well as mergers and acquisitions transactions across a broad range of industries. He assists companies such as start-ups and SMEs in achieving their goals and protecting their interests.

Clément Bouvier's expertise also extends to advising Swiss and foreign financial institutions and borrowers on complex financing transactions, including traditional and non-traditional asset-backed financing, bond issues and syndicated loans.

Additionally, Clément Bouvier is a Trust & Estate Practitioner (STEP). As such, he advises private clients, both Swiss and international, on a wide range of matters such as estate and wealth planning, trusts and foundations, private international law, as well as family governance.
