EXPERTISE

Edouard Houman assists both Swiss and international private clients across various areas, particularly in relation to their wealth and estate planning.

He advises our clients on complex international wealth structuring issues and assists them in setting up trusts and foundations.

His practice focuses in particular on clients with personal, business or investment ties in the Middle East.

Edouard Houman also advises our clients on their entrepreneurial activities, the implementation of philanthropic projects and business succession planning.

He supports our clients with their relocation to Switzerland and the management of their family office.

Furthermore, he advises our clients on the acquisition, management and ownership of their yachts and aircrafts.
